

WRA Ltd Management Board Profile

Robert Whitehouse
Vice Chairman

Robert worked in the public sector for 38 years, latterly as Chief Executive and Solicitor for the County of Durham Magistrates' Courts. During his service, he was closely involved in the modernization of criminal justice policy and administration and gained qualifications in management and training and as a Business Excellence Assessor.

Following the nationalisation of the Courts, Robert is now a consultant. He also works for the Princes' Trust as a volunteer business mentor and is a local panel member. His family has been associated with the railway for a number of generations and this has given him a tremendous insight into railway work.

Robert is an active Wensleydale Railway crossing keeper and signalman.
